

WHAT'S ON MY VERDADA?

LISTS AND LISTINGS, TOPICS OF INTEREST, CUSTOM MAPS AND NOTES, SOME OF IT SHARED WITH FRIENDS

"All my streams of consciousness. I write myself a lot of little notes, have a lot of brainstorms and do a fair bit of contemplation."

"Every product I consider buying and the ones I do buy. I like to keep track of products of interest and remember the reasons I looked at the product and liked it. Or if I didn't like it, why."

"Great articles I find on the web. A lot of online content inspires me to think, see things differently and seek dialog."

"Businesses that I trust. My emergency numbers, favorite restaurants, key services. Both local and for when I go places."

"Personalized maps of my favorite places. Whether I am at home in SF, visiting family in LA, on business in Atlanta or vacationing in Maui, I have a local map of all the places I frequent."

"Postings. I'm not really a blogger per se, but I do like to post from time to time. Often, what starts out as an email exchange or 'note to self' ends up as an Amazon review or a public weblog post."
